1 YMCA
43 Schools
22,000 Children

Did you know your YMCA provides physical education for 22,000 children at 43 schools in the Valley?

Thanks to its members and the community, the North Valley Family YMCA plays a strong role in stopping the rising rates of obesity and poor health in children. The program provides childhood obesity intervention and education in fitness, stress management and healthy eating.

Thank you for supporting the place that supports families and children.
