Model United Nations (MUN) middle school (6th-8th grades) participants will come together with peers across their region of California, become Ambassadors, discover other cultures, discuss international issues, develop life-enhancing skills, and most importantly, make new friends.

These Ambassadors will be assigned to a program area learning about the Sustainable Development Goals of the U.N. and focused on how to improve the international community.

This four month program includes a 1-Day Training and a 2-night Model United Nations Summit in either Northern California or Southern California.

Contact your local YMCA for more information on registration deadlines, event dates, and cost.
